

Notice of Intercept of Gambling Winnings for Child Support

Under state law (N.D.C.C. § 50-09-40), all or part of your winnings, have been intercepted by Child Support because you owe past-due support. The amount intercepted will be sent to the Child Support within seven (7) business days.

Child Support will hold the funds for 30 days to give you a chance to request a court review of the intercept. If your child support order was not issued by a North Dakota court, you may file your written request with any North Dakota court that has jurisdiction to enforce your child support order or, if no North Dakota court has jurisdiction to enforce your child support order, with any North Dakota court that has jurisdiction over you. A copy of your request for review must be sent to Child Support at the address shown below:
